

Supporting Survivors from Faith Backgrounds and Enhancing Our Work with the Faith Community

A Training for Domestic and Sexual Violence Providers

Presented by Reverend Dr. Aleese Moore-Orbih of the FaithTrust Institute

This day long program will provide training for domestic violence and sexual assault providers on how to enhance their skills in assisting survivors from a faith background.

June 10, 2010

9:00am- 4:00pm

Massachusetts Dept. of Public Health, WRHO
23 Service Center Rd.
Northampton, MA 01060

This workshop is free of charge and a complimentary lunch will be provided.

For more Information and to apply, please complete the enclosed application.

Space is limited, please consider registering early.

Deadline: June 3, 2010

Sponsored by the Massachusetts Rural Domestic and Sexual Violence Project of the Dept of Public Health

PRELIMINARY TRAINING TOPICS

Creating and strengthening practices and policies to support survivors' faith in our hotline, counseling, and shelter services?

Exploring strategies to reduce roadblocks in working with clergy and faith communities

Identifying potential resources to work constructively with faith leaders as allies in ending domestic and sexual violence

This project is supported by grant # 2005-WR-AX-0009 awarded by the Office on Violence Against Women, U.S. Department of Justice. The opinions, findings, conclusions, and recommendations expressed in this publication (training) are those of the authors and do not necessarily reflect the views of the Department of Justice, Office on Violence Against Women.