Cliff Effects - redo and updates as new information becomes available

Cliff Effects featuring a speaker from DTA to talk about the Common Calc and the changes in asset limits/income limits; How to Navigate CORI barriers for housing & employment

Please be mindful that there are enough providers in Pittsfield to hold trainings and the resource fair.

I loved the Org Code trainings, but I noticed many similarities between the how to run an awesome shelter and the other two later trainings. Many slides were identical. I wish I was able to make the Racial Equity training, I heard that was awesome and would love to attend.

Traumas Informed, Motivational Interviewing, such things that are so needful in our interactions with those who seem to have no rope left to hold onto. We need to be kind and yet give assistance in urging someone to adopt a different way of looking at things then they have done in the past, to hopefully have more positive outcomes for the individuals we serve. Most of us would not have gotten into these fields if we did not care, and these 'workshops' or 'trainings' are our only ability to learn because of the workload of our jobs. Thanks so much for offering them so we can help those we try to help to have better and more stable lives.

General navigating the housing system would be helpful would be good to have a training for stabilization workers.

CORI and new reform would be a good subject

The workshop on racial equity was very good training and would like to try and expand on what we learned going forward. On the SSI/SSDI workshop it would be helpful if more time could be spent on how to work with in the appeal process.

Cliff Effect, and a comprehensive overview of what programs and agencies we have in the region - coming from Job Corps this is selfish - as we are a huge resource that few fully grasp -

Homeless engagement/pre-treatment training by Jay Levy; Subsidized housing search training, tips and tricks; training on summary process tips and tricks

Training specifically on different types of racism and how it is manifested in work we do everyday. This is very different than Race Equity training. I have never been to a training specifically on this topic. We all know racism exists, but we never talk about it directly. It plays out between colleagues and with clients.

Respondents:

would love the opportunity to discuss with the group the importance of embedding Financial Literacy/Credit Counseling. I am interested in these trainings for both myself and staff. Synthia Scott-Mitchell, Director for Community Services Springfield Partners for community Action
